Blue Canoe Theatrical Productions Inc. is proud to present the opening production of our 8th season, the Kingston premiere of NINE, a musical by Arthur Kopit with Music & Lyrics by Maury Yeston, directed by Sean McCabe and Bridget Gilhooly. Featuring youth performers, musicians, designers and production staff from Kingston and the surrounding areas, NINE brings a brilliant score to the Kingston stage with a unique spin on design with projection and multi media.

NINE is playing at the Baby Grand Theatre located at 218 Princess St, downtown Kingston inside the historic Grand Theatre. The production runs from January 8th until January 25th; shows are Wednesdays to Saturdays at 7:30pm with matinees on Saturdays at 2pm.

NINE, the Tony Award Winner for Best Musical and Best Revival, tells the story of a celebrated film director Guido Contini and his attempts to come up with a plot for his next film as he is pursued by hordes of beautiful women, all clamouring to be loved by him and him alone. Flashbacks reveal the substance of his life which may become the material for his next film as he battles his own success, balancing his life from the professional to the personal.

*"A galloping fantasy [with a] ravishingly inventive and tuneful score." The New York Times

*"A rich and thrilling night of theatre." - The New York Post
